

Early Learning

at the Harn Museum of Art

Early Learning at the Harn is a school and museum-based program for pre-K & kindergarten students to promote visual literacy, vocabulary development and individual expression, especially for children of low-income families who face an educational achievement gap. The program features multiple components that include:

- Pre-Program Workshop
- Pre-visit Preparation
- Museum Field Trip
- Post-visit Reflection
- Post-visit Outreach Event
- Program Evaluation

Questions? Contact Paige Willis, Community Engagement Manager, at pwillis@harn.ufl.edu, or Kim Friend, Docent, at kimfriend1@hotmail.com

Access the Visual Arts for Young Minds PPT Presentation via the QR code or link: <https://bit.ly/3PBmy74>

Early Learning

at the Harn Museum of Art

Early Learning at the Harn is a school and museum-based program for pre-K & kindergarten students to promote visual literacy, vocabulary development and individual expression, especially for children of low-income families who face an educational achievement gap. The program features multiple components that include:

- Pre-Program Workshop
- Pre-visit Preparation
- Museum Field Trip
- Post-visit Reflection
- Post-visit Outreach Event
- Program Evaluation

Questions? Contact Paige Willis, Community Engagement Manager, at pwillis@harn.ufl.edu, or Kim Friend, Docent, at kimfriend1@hotmail.com

Access the Visual Arts for Young Minds PPT Presentation via the QR code or link: <https://bit.ly/3PBmy74>

