

KALAMAZOO INSTITUTE OF ARTS

Websites

There is a lot of information about art for the blind on the internet. An easy way to get to the sites below is to "Google" the words in bold. The web address (URL) is also given.

Kalamazoo Institute of the Arts: Our official website. www.kiarts.org and the specific page for our Touch Tours: http://www.kiarts.org/page.php?page_id=422.

Art Beyond Sight: A truly remarkable website. It will take time to fully explore it. artbeyondsight.org.

Art A Go Go: (Search the site for "blind") artagogo.com.

Woodson Art Museum - Wausau, WI: Contains a paper written by a person who started a program for the blind in rural WI. Unesco.org.

American Council for the Blind: acb.org. A list of programs by state.

Touch Venus at the Getty: <http://blogs.getty.edu/iris/a-touching-experience-exploring-art-with-blind-and-low-sighted-visitors/>.

Tate Modern (Search the site for "imap-creative-access") When you get there, look at the bottom of the page for: i-Map: The everyday transformed. A very creative approach! <http://www.tate.org.uk/learn/online-resources/imap-creative-access>.

Touch Tour for the Blind Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6YLPnltOiQo> (One of many sites.)

Tactile Diagrams: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p8P7X7KYN5w&feature=relmfu> (One of many sites.)

Touch the Art at the Prado: What you can do with 3D printers and a lot of money. <http://www.kunc.org/post/do-touch-artwork-prados-exhibit-blind#stream/0>

Sally Barker Quilts for the Blind: Sally Barker created a code where different fabrics denote different colors. She then quilts images of well-known paintings to create tactile images of 2D works. <http://tactilecolor.com>.